DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-9 and 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Krass (US 6,179,428 B1).

Krass discloses a vehicular rearview mirror assembly comprising a base assembly (Fig. 1, 10) adapted for mounting the rearview mirror assembly to a vehicle, the base assembly including an extension arm extending therefrom (16), a reflective element disposed in a reflective element assembly (60), the reflective element assembly attaching to the extension arm and moveable along the extension arm for providing an operator of the vehicle with a rearward view (see Figs. 3 and 4), wherein the reflective element assembly is slidably movable along the extension arm via a plurality of low friction bearings interposed between the extension arm and the reflective element assembly for facilitating movement of the reflective element assembly relative to the extension arm (50, 52), and the plurality of low friction bearings comprising a ball bearing or a roller bearings (see column 4, line 3). The reflective element assembly further comprises a mounting frame and the plurality of low friction bearings is interposed between the extension arm and the mounting frame (the part where detents are disposed along 16).

3. Claims 17-19 and 24-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kumai (US 4,626,084).

Kumai discloses a vehicular rearview mirror assembly comprising a base assembly (Fig. 6, 4) adapted for mounting the rearview mirror assembly to a vehicle (see Fig. 1), at least one supporting arm (6) for supporting a reflective element assembly (Fig. 1, 14), the at least one supporting arm movably connected to the base frame for selectively folding the reflective element assembly against the vehicle (see Figs. 4 and 5), the reflective element assembly movably attached to the supporting arm for extending the reflective element assembly away from the vehicle (see Figs. 4 and 5), and plurality of low friction bearings interposed between the reflective element assembly relative to the vehicle, wherein the bearings are ball or roller bearings (see 28 in Fig. 6).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 10-13 and 20-23 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: claims are allowable at least for the reason that the prior art does not teach or reasonably suggest the base frame with parallel spaced-apart flanges as set forth in the claimed combination.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
